

Annual fish boil feeds Resthaven residents

The Holland Fish and Game Club has been preparing the Resthaven Maple Woods fish boil for more than 30 years. All the fish were donated from the Big Red Fishing Classic. PHOTOS BY ANDREW WHITAKER/SENTINEL STAFF

Resthaven Maple Woods residents enjoyed a fresh fish dinner Thursday evening. Members of the Holland Fish and Game Club prepared a salmon boil for residents of the assisted living and memory support community. The club has been donating the fish and preparing it for more than 30 years for Resthaven residents, spokeswoman Kathy Zeh said. All the fish was caught during the Big Red Classic Sport Fishing Tournament held Aug. 1-3 in Holland.

Arik Hamacher, 11, (left) eats at the Resthaven Maple Woods fish boil for his 11th year. His grandmother, Barbara Hochstetler, has been working in the kitchen at Resthaven for the past 14 years.

— Staff report